RECITAL BY

REINALD WERRENATH

Reinald Werrenrath comes of an unusual musical family. His father, who was Danish, was a noted operatic tenor, and his first teacher. His mother, an American, and his four grandparents were likewise singers.

The remarkable quality of his voice was evident from an early age. It was in 1908 that his singing attracted general attention. He quickly became one of the most popular baritones of the day. Several tours of America were followed in 1913 by recitals in London, Paris, Berlin and other cities. He sang in London in 1920 and in 1921. In the season of 1918-1919, he sang in several operas at the Metropolitan Opera House — notably "Pagliacci" and "Faust."

But it is in the more exacting field of the concert stage that this baritone has found his immense popularity and distinction.

“YOU CAN RELY ON LEWANDOS”

If London Bridge were falling down

If you were playing London Bridge as in your childhood, what would you choose when imprisoned by the arms of the bridge, fastened about you?

Would you choose a platinum watch or a diamond ring, a chest of silver or an amber necklace, a link bracelet or a set of toilet silver? You might if you are a little girl grown up.

If you are a little boy grown up you are harder to please; but even you might be suited with a new watch, some links and buttons for evening wear, a silver cigarette case, a traveling-clock, or gold trinkets for your pockets.

Christmas with its happy giving will soon be here. As you think of those to whom you wish to give, remember that they too are boys and girls grown up. As in their days of playing London Bridge, they would wish for and choose things for their personal use most of all.

Such gifts need not be expensive, but they must be carefully and slowly chosen so that they may be among the most treasured of Christmas offerings. We suggest that you come in as soon as possible to select them.

THE MESSIAH

ORATORIO, composed in 1741; begun August 22, finished September 14. Text selected from the Scriptures by CHARLES JENNENS. Produced in Dublin, April 13, 1742, under the direction of HANDEL. Additional accompaniments by MOZART, 1789; and by ROBERT FRANZ, for the use of the Handel and Haydn Society, completed and published in 1884. First performance by the Handel and Haydn Society, December 25, 1818, in Boylston Hall; present performances 147th and 148th.

PART ONE

THE PROPHECIES AND THE FULFILMENT.

I

OVERTURE

grave: fuga, allegro moderato

2-3

TENOR RECITATIVE

Comfort ye my people, saith your God: speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem; and cry unto her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

AIR

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill made low; the crooked straight, and the rough places plain.

CHORUS

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed; and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

BASS RECITATIVE

Thus saith the Lord of Hosts: Yet once a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land; and I will shake all nations; and the desire of all nations shall come; the Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to His temple; even the messenger of the covenant whom ye delight in; behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of Hosts.

8-9

ALTO RECITATIVE

Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son; and shall call his name EMMANUEL God with us.

AIR AND CHORUS

O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up into the high mountain. O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid: say unto the cities of Judah, Behold, your God. Arise; shine; for thy light is come; and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

10-11

BASS RECITATIVE

For behold darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people; but the Lord shall arise upon thee and His glory shall be seen upon thee, and the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

AIR

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; and they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them the light shined.

12

CHORUS

For unto us a child is born: unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful; Counsellor; the Mighty God; the Everlasting Father; the Prince of Peace.

PASTORAL SYMPHONY

larghetto

(on the traditional air of the Calabrian pifferari)

14-15-16-17

SOPRANO RECITATIVE

There were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them; and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not, for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people; for unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior which is Christ the Lord.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying:

CHORUS

Glory to God in the highest; and peace on earth, good will towards men.

18

SOPRANO AIR

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion: shout, O daughter of Jerusalem. Behold, thy King cometh unto thee. He is the righteous Savior; and He shall speak peace unto the heaven.

19-20

ALTO RECITATIVE

Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped: then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing.

ALTO AND SOPRANO AIR

He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; and He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom; and gently lead those that are with young. . . . Come unto Him, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and He will give you rest. Take this yoke upon you, and learn of Him; for He is meek and lowly of heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

21

CHORUS

His yoke is easy, and His burden is light.

INTERMISSION 10 MINUTES

PART TWO

THE PASSION AND THE TRIUMPH

23

ALTO AIR

He was despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.

24-26

CHORUS

Surely He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. He was wounded for our transgressions: He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him.

All we like sheep have gone astray: we have turned every one to his own way: and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

29-30

TENOR RECITATIVE

Thy rebuke hath broken His heart: He is full of heaviness. He looked for some to have pity on Him; but there was no man; neither found He any to comfort Him.

AIR

Behold and see if there be any sorrow like unto His sorrow.

CHORUS

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of Glory shall come in. Who is the King of Glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle. The Lord of Hosts, He is the King of Glory.

BASS AIR

Why do the nations so furiously rage together; and why do the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth rise up, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord and against His anointed.

TENOR RECITATIVE

He that dwelleth in Heaven shall laugh them to scorn; the Lord shall have them in derision.

AIR

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

CHORUS

Hallelujah! For the lord God Omnipotent reigneth. The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. HALLELUJAH!

PART THREE

THE RESURRECTION AND THE GLORY

SOPRANO AIR

I know that my Redeemer liveth; and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God. For now is Christ risen from the dead, the first fruits of them that sleep.

BASS RECITATIVE

Behold, I tell you a mystery: we shall not all sleep; but we shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet.

AIR

The trumpet shall sound; and the dead shall be raised incorruptible; and we shall be changed.

CHORUS

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by His blood, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing. Blessing and honor, glory and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

Amen! Amen!

As time is setting a perspective on the works of the great French master, it seems ever more probable that "Samson and Delilah" will be looked upon as his "chef d'oeuvre." This biblical opera gains rather than loses by a concert representation — the marvelously fine choruses which predominate are unsuitable for the theatre, and the action of the chief figures is psychological rather than histrionic. Madame Matzenauer is one of the greatest interpreters of Delilah the Metropolitan Opera Company has ever had. John Barclay does splendid justice to the famous role of the High Priest, while the remarkable voice of Orville Harrold is well suited to the part of Samson.
